New PVNA Life Members

Congratulations to our newest life members, well done on all the work they have done in the PVNA committee and within the PV Comets club committee.

- Wendy Castles
- Anna DeBono

These ladies have volunteered many hours of their time towards the successful organising and functioning of the PVNA representative teams. Their involvement increased significantly in 2007 when their direct involvement improved the professionalism both administratively and aesthetically of our representative teams. Providing our PVNA netballers a pathway to playing netball beyond our Saturday morning competition. Through their efforts we now have our netballers participating in the Parkville competition, at association tournaments across Melbourne and talent spotting tournaments and zone academies.

Netball Joke

Why is basketball messier than Netball?
 Because in basketball players dribble, while in netball there is not dribbling but we wear bibs just in case.
