The NNL (northern netball league - football netball league) has started. The PV Comets club has provided an opportunity for PV Comets and PVNA members who want to progress to an OPEN competition.

The season that runs during the football season (18 rounds + finals), we have fielded 5 teams in sections 1, 2, 3, 5 and 8. These teams have many girls from PVNA team from 17&U 2013 teams.

Pink Ribbon Day

Thanks one and all for participating in our Pink Sports Day.

All those pink ladies around the stadium certainly made us aware of this great cause.

The association collected $335.75 and this has been passed onto Breast Cancer Network Australia.

Thank you.

Thank you to all at PVNA

And the good work of our Treasurer. 2013 saw a financial surplus as shown in the figures presented at the AGM. This Saturday the 24th May will be a Fee Free game day. (No game fees will be payable.) Those teams with a bye the free game will be carried over to the 31st May. Also as further thanks, the Committee has approved no $55 registration fee payable for all teams registering for the Spring 2014 season. This is your money going back to you.

Netball Joke

Spectator: I love watching how well the Center drives down the netball to receive a pass in 11&Us; you can do it so quickly!
Netballer: But I don't know how to drive.

So if you feel there is a need either look for me (Sue) or in a respectful manner the Captain may approach the Umpire.

Please remember

These are children playing netball,

This is a game

The coaches are all volunteers

The umpires are human.

We are all here to enjoy ourselves
